

call open call open call open march 12th

What is the role/placement of the space within the larger context of the cityscape? How can one perceive and define its meaning when it comes to representation? How to construct a space that is actively playing a role in discourses such as: the visibility of communities, communal spaces, acceleration of gentrification, architecture of civil society, accessibility of the exhibition space to different bodies, and agency of cultural inhabitants.

center
for international research
and collaborative
art

Send a PDF with a CV, samples of recent works and a short proposal that explains your idea. For video work, performance and media please include any links. Deadline 29th February Exhibition date: March 12th-15th

106

info@circa106.info