6th Open Call: Cultural scenes in dialogue.

Circa 106 announces the upcoming 6th Open Call: Cultural scenes in Dialogue, a one month residency program taking place between October & December 2021. This edition of the Open Call series aims to function as a starting point for academia to converse and learn from non-hierarchical modes of organization that facilitate spaces of empowerment and agency.

We wish this could initiate a ground for students who have not been exposed to the cultural and political scene in Bremen. To engage, collaborate and imagine their practice beyond the convention of the eurocentric distribution of cultural capital, created through museums, exhibition spaces, biennales etc. Through this Open Call, we are interested to think together how to create spaces where voices can find agency and where communities in struggles are neither exoticised nor victimised.

The current Covid-19 measures allows us to offer three fellows the chance to work in the space simultaneously, potentially creating a platform of conversation that could emerge from sharing their everyday studio practice.

To apply please send us an email to to info@circa106.info with a short proposal or description of your practice, CV and portfolio and your indicated preferred time(see suggested dates below) until the 20th of September. We can offer a 200 Euros material allowance for each person, basic tools and equipment, website and online media, as well as continuous conversation with the Circa 106 cohort. An external jury will review the applications and a response will be sent the 23rd of September to the selected applicants. You can refer to Circa 106 website to see the previous iterations of residency programs, talks and events.
